VOLUNTARY COMMITMENT FOR EXPERTS

The following points are intended to ensure that You, the expert, understand the nature of your role and what is expected of You. Please read the points below, and if You are in agreement with them.

Please sign at the bottom of the page.

I herewith declare my interest to contribute as expert to the World Alliance for Efficient Solutions and confirm that:

- I am personally entitled to contribute as expert to the World Alliance for Efficient Solutions;
- I am contributing on a voluntary and non-remunerated basis;
- I am willing to provide a certain amount of time (up to 2 hours per week on average);
- I would ideally give two-weeks' notice should I no longer wish to continue in the role;
- I am aware that each assignment is allocated on a case-by-case basis, dependent on whether my expertise corresponds with the available assignments;
- I have the right to decline tasks assigned to me;
- I am allowing that the information I provide will be stored and used internally within the World Alliance for Efficient Solutions; and
- I am allowing that elements of my profile which represent my competencies (profession, work title), but not those identifying me (picture, name, age, company affiliation, etc.) will be shared with those entities submitting solutions so that they have an understanding about those who assessed their work.

I have read and agree to:

- comply with the expressions made in the "Roles & Conditions for Experts" document;
- perform my role in accordance with the "Efficiency Assessment Guidelines for Experts";
- treat the information provided to me in a confidential manner in accordance with the terms set out in the document titled "Roles & Conditions for Experts", Section 3.4), and indicate any potential conflicts of interest if possible before accepting such tasks; and
- provide information and opinions which are evidence and/or experience based and reflect the best of my knowledge with the aim to give an accurate and impartial assessment using the most current techniques as practical at the time of the assessment.

This voluntary commitment and all related documents, including the "Roles & Conditions for Experts", shall be governed exclusively by Swiss substantive law. Any dispute arising out of, or in connection with, this voluntary commitment or any related document, including, the "Roles & Conditions for Experts", shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Lausanne, Switzerland, reserving any appeal to the Swiss Supreme Court.

Acknowledged and agreed
